REVOKES THE CALL FOR LEGISLATURE

Bankers Rally to Support of State in Refunding Bond Sale.

PROCLAMATION BY GOVERNOR

Issue More Than Subscribed as Result of Bidding at Raleigh Yesterday. Funds Will be Sufficient For All Purposes.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 10.—Governor Kitchin issued this evening his proclamation revoking the call of June 3rd for the General Assembly to convene in extraordinary session June 14th. It sets out that:

"Whereas, the extraordinary occasion which required said proclamation, has ceased to exist by reason of the fact that since the issuance of said proclamation, under new advertisement by the State Treasurer, the entire issue of said bonds authorized by Chapter 399, Laws of 1909, has been subscribed, thus assuring sufficient funds to jay off all bonds maturing on July 1st, 1910.

"Now, therefore, by and with the advice of the Council of State, I, W. W. Kitchin, Governor of North Carolina, do hereby revoke said proclamation of June 3rd, 1910, do declare that no necessity or extraordinary occasion now exists for an extra session of the General Assembly on June 14th, and hereby notify Senators and members of the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of North Carolina not to meet in extra session on said date."

Bonds Oversubscribed.

That there was $435,000 more in subscriptions for the North Carolina refunding bonds than needed to take up the remainder of the July 1 issue was the showing made today when the final opening of bids took place in the office of the State Treasurer. It was a light-hearted group of State officials with a goodly company of bankers and business men who gathered at noon for the opening of the bids, enough as to what was in hand being known already to make it certain that the entire issue was more than absorbed. The aggregate of the bids opened today was $2,555,500. The bids were from every part of the State, from private citizens, from banking institutions and other corporations. The largest, of course, was from the American Tobacco Co., that being for $1,000,000. From this amount the range was downward to $500.

The State officers will now go over the bids carefully and scale down in the most equitable way possible so as to distribute the bonds in proportion to the bids.

The following bids were at par: Miss Rowe Wiggins, Wilmington, $29,000; W. L. Lyon, Bank of Windsor, $10,000; First National Bank, Gastonia, $10,000; Cabarrus Savings Bank, $15,000; T. J. B. L. DUKE TRIES TO MARRY AGAIN

License Secured But Minister Refused to Perform the Ceremony.

OCCURRED IN WASHINGTON

Miss Roschelle, of Durham, Bride-to-be. Action of Minister Caused by Divorce—Married Three Times, Divorced Twice.

Washington, June 10.—Brodie L. Duke, one of the tobacco magnates of the country, came quietly to Washington today to negotiate the fourth marriage contract of his career, and after carefully laid plans for the ceremony, ran afoul of a Presbyterian clergyman's aversion to divorce.

Mr. Duke had planned to be married at 4 o'clock this afternoon to Miss Wylanta Roschelle, of Durham, N. C., where are situated his tobacco interests and his magnificent estate. The Rev. Donald C. MacLeod, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, had agreed to perform the ceremony.

That understanding was reached between the prospective bridegroom and the Presbyterian pastor about 9 o'clock in the morning soon after the wealthy tobacco manufacturer and his bride-to-be had arrived in the city.

Under the law of the District of Columbia, it is required that the name of the minister or marrying justice appear on the license application and the license before it is issued. Cognizant of this provision, Mr. Duke accompanied by a friend, called on Rev. MacLeod before he applied for his license.

Having arranged to be married in Pastor MacLeod's study at 4 o'clock Mr. Duke procured the license. He gave his residence and that of Miss Roschelle as Durham, N. C., his age at 62 years and her's at 28. The name of Rev. MacLeod was given as the officiating parson. So far the plans were running smoothly.

Later in the day some seeker after news discovered that Brodie L. Duke, the tobacco man, three times married, twice divorced, and on several occasions involved in marital difficulties, the chief of which involved trouble with his last wife, the late Alice Webb Duke, was to be married. This fact subsequently, was announced to the public through the newspapers.

Warned of the forthcoming event reporters and photographers gathered at the First Presbyterian church. Half an hour before the appointment Rev. Mr. MacLeod arrived at the church. He entered his study and a few minutes later came out and requested the camera brigade to leave the church yard. Summoning the reporters he informed them that there was to be no wedding.

"The marriage license bureau records show that you are to marry Brodie L. Duke," was suggested.

"Well, I am not going to marry him here or anywhere," replied the pastor somewhat vigorously.

"Have you refused to marry him on the ground that he has figured in the divorce courts?"

"Well, that is not for me to say," was the reply. "You are a good guesser."

Subsequently Rev. Mr. MacLeod declared he did not know Mr. Duke and that when he had come to him in the morning and engaged him to perform a marriage ceremony he had agreed to do so, not having known the applicant's marital history. When he afterward learned the facts he communicated with Mr. Duke and informed him that he could not officiate.

The time for the ceremony was then drawing nigh and in order for Mr. Duke to be married in the District of Columbia it was necessary for him to procure another minister of justice and file his name on the records at the court house. This he had not done when the license office closed at 4 o'clock, and no trace of the bridal

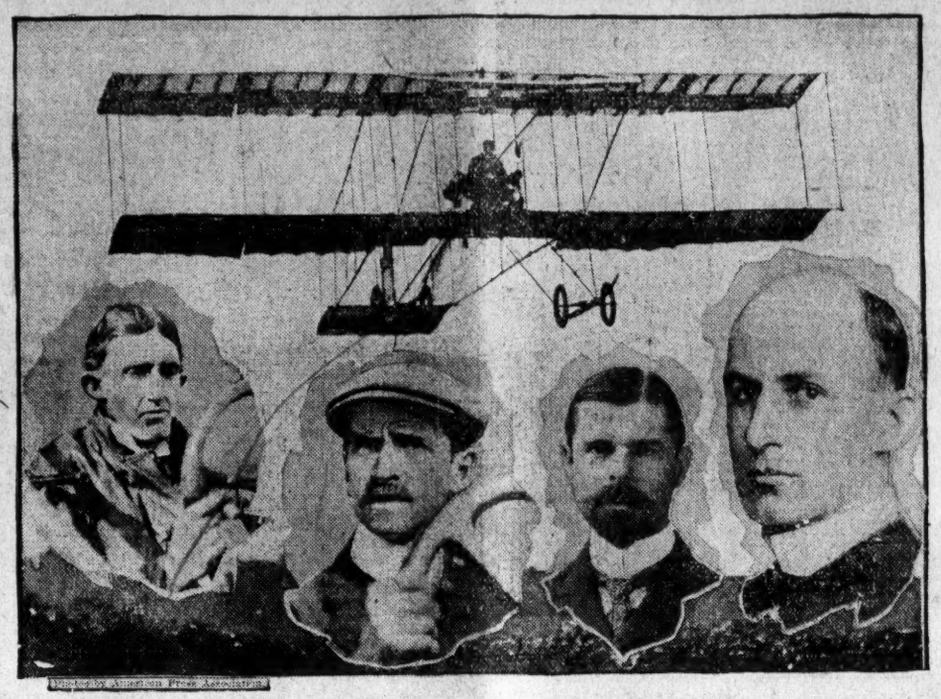
Nearly $100,000 in Cash Prizes Await The Flying Machine Men



Photograph by American Press Association

New York, June 10.—The prize of $15,000 offered by Edwin Gould for the aviator who makes the longest flight in an air machine during the coming summer has started the air world going around in circles once more. Since the remarkable flight of Curtiss between Albany and New York prizes have been offered by various cities that now total nearly $100,000 in cash. This amount is to be increased, so it is said, until by fall men who fly for a living will have nearly $150,000 in prizes to work for. Hamilton is out to break records in his round trip between New York and Philadelphia tomorrow. In the picture, left to right, are C. K. Hamilton, G. H. Curtiss, Edwin Gould and Wilbur Wright.

MRS. CASTLE LIKELY KILLED

Mutilated Body of American Woman Found in Italian Lake—Some Doubt As to Identity—Wowan Who Shot Lawyer.

Como, Italy, June 10.—The badly mutilated body of a woman, believed to be that Mr. Mrs. H. N. Castle, who was Mary Crittenden Scott, of San Jose, Cal., was found in a trunk today submerged in a lake near the village of Moltrasio.

Wrapped about the body was a piece of cloth which bore the initials "G. L." and some letters found in the trunk written in English it appears that the woman in 1906 lived in 34th street New York City. The police, basing their opinion on wounds on the head, evidently made by a blunt instrument, are of the belief that the woman was murdered and have taken into custody a Russian named Constantine Ispolatoff, 50 years old, whom they suspect of having some knowledge of how the woman met death.

Several persons who had known the woman in life and viewed her body today declared that she had told them she had been married to Porter Charlton, the son of an American naval officer. Charlton is described as being 23 years old and is said once to have been a student at the University of Pennsylvania. The woman apparently was about 35 years old.

When the body was found, it was recollected that recently a young couple had occupied a villa on the shore of the lake. Three days ago they disappeared and have not since been seen by the people of the neighborhood. The woman spoke English. Her companion attempted French, but obviously it was not his native tongue.

New York, June 10.—Mary Scott Castle was an emotional woman with a spectacular career. She startled New York on August 3rd last by shooting William B. Craig, a New York lawyer, as he stood on "Peacock Alley" at the Waldorf Astoria. But her revolver was pathetically small, the bullet was deqected by a fountain pen in Craig's pocket and he was uninjured. Mrs. Castle, trembling and hysterical, was taken to a police station where, between sobs, she said that she had not meant to kill Craig, but that he had done her a great wong. Craig, though inclined to reticence said the woman was in love with him and had pursued him. He is married and lives in New York, but could not be found tonight.

Mrs. Castle was subsequently released under $3,000 bail, furnished by her brother, Captain Henry Harrison Scott, U. S. A. who hurried hither from the South when apprised of his sister's plight. The case never came to trial and Mrs. Castle was discharged in September last after Craig had appeared before the grand jury and declined to press the charge.

Thereafter Mrs. Castle dropped from public view until dispatches from the West told of the granting of a decree of divorce at Nome, Alaska to her husband, Neville H. Castle, a San Francisco lawyer.

Mrs. Castle was a pretty woman and a brief stage career in New York interspersed her life of excitement. This was after her marriage to Castle which took place in San Francisco more than ten years ago. She was 37 years old and the daughter of H. H. Scott, of San Francisco.

Houston, Texas, June 10.—Twenty persons were injured and much property was destroyed by a storm which passed through Smith county late last night, according to meagre advices received tonight.

BAD STORM IN THE INTERIOR

Cotton Mill Struck by Lightning and Operative Killey—Lumberton Streets Filled With Debris. Deluge of Rain.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Fayetteville, N. C., June 10.—During a thunder storm here about 7:30 o'clock this evening, the Holt Morgan Cotton Mill was struck by lightning and set on fire. James Garven, an operative, was found dead near the entrance and is supposed to have been killed by the same bolt which fired the mill. The fire was extinguished without great damage.

Lumberton, N. C., June 10.—From 7 to 8 o'clock this evening this place was visited by the heaviest rain and wind storm accompanied by thunder and lightning of the season. The rain, which fell in torrents, was preceded by severe wind of only a few minutes' duration.

The streets in some parts of town are strewn with limbs from trees and the streets in many places flooded with water, making travel difficult. The telephone exchange is badly crippled, many phones being burned out, besides many wires being crossed.

The entire issue or $125,000 municipal building bonds and $25,000 refunding bonds were bought by N. W. Halsey Co., of New York, the premium being $4,614. There were a dozen bidders from out of the State. The bonds bear five per cent. per annum.

WOLGAST BROKE HIS ARM.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 10.—After Wolgast and Jack Redmond had boxed tamely for six rounds tonight they started the seventh with Redmond chasing Wolgast around the ring trying to land. Wolgast dropped his left arm and for the remainder of the round did not use it. After going to his corner he said his left forearm was broken. The fight, however, continued.

AGREEING ON RAILROAD BILL

Conferees Believe Final Agreement Will be Reached on Monday— Substantial Progress Made Yesterday—Will Change.

Washington, June 10.—Conferees on the administration railroad bill had the aid of Attorney General Wickersham at both of today's sessions and it was announced tonight that there is a possibility of a final agreement being reached on Monday or within a day or two following. This prediction was made by both Senators Elkins and Aldrich and even Representative Mann, of Illinois, admitted that substantial progress had been made.

It was learned that tentative agreement was reached as to the long and short haul provisions which will consist practically of all of both the Senate and House amendments on this subject. The stock and bonds provision is to be eliminated because of the assertion by the Senate conferees that they could not obtain the adoption of a conference report containing any provision for Federal regulation of the securities of corporations on account of the opposition of Democrats.

The ascertainment of the physical valuation of railroads it is asserted will not be provided for in the conference bill. During the day Mr. Mann submitted a substitute for the House amendment on this subject, but the Senate conferees characerized it as a "make shift" which meant nothing and which if adopted would subject the conference committee to general condemnation by supporters of legislation to an investigation of the value of railroad property.

Mr. Mann has not entirely abandoned hope of compelling the acceptance of some provision on this subject.

President Taft, according to present indications, will win on only one of the three suggestions which he made to the conference. He wanted the retention of the House amendments concerning stocks and bonds, the reduction from ten to six months in the time allotted by the Senate bill to the Interstate Commerce Commission for the investigation of increases of railroads and the making of the section regarding rate increases effective at once instead of a 60 days as provided by both bills.

All of the members of the conference committee agreed to the wisdom of the latter suggestion because of its application to notices given by railroads recently of many proposed advances.

The Senate conferees have told the President that they could not consent to the stocks and bonds feature because of their agreements with the demands. The insistency of the suspension of the increases in rates for ten months in the event that period was required by the Interstate Commerce Commission to pass upon their reasonableness is a concession to "insurgent" Republican Senators.

Several of the amendments adopted by the Senate as to the result of the demands made by the insurgent Republicans will be retained. These includes the amendcent placing upon the railroads the burden of proving the reasonableness of advances in rates. On the other hand it is understood that the Paynter amendment requiring that both the old and new rates must be shown by the bills of lading and the shipper reimbursed for the amount of the increase in the event it was held to be unjust, would be dropped out of the bill.

Senator Foster, the minority member of the Senate conference committee, resigned today and Senator Newlands was appointed to succeed him. The Democratic members of the committee have not been admitted to any of the councils and will not be until until a complete agreement has been reached by the Republicans.

TWO SUGAR TRUST OFFICIALS GUILTY

Heike and Gerbracht Convicted of Conspiracy to Defraud Government

BOTH FACE PRISON TERMS

Heike Found Guilty on One Count and Gerbracht Convicted in All Six Counts—Bendernagle Will be Tried Again.

New York, June 10.—Charles R. Heike, ex-secretary of the American Sugar Refining Company, was convicted tonight on one count of an indictment charging conspiracy to defraud the government of customs dues on sugar.

Ernest W. Gerbracht, former superintendent of the Williamsburg (Brooklyn) refinery, was convicted on all six counts.

For James F. Bendernagel, the former cashier of the refinery, the jury stood 7 to 5 for acquittal. He will be tried again.

This ends the government's second attempt to imprison the group of men responsible for the vast underweighing frauds to which the so-called trust has virtually confessed by the restitution of more than $2,000,000 in duty. Heike is the highest official of the company upon whom blame has been fixed and he now faces a possible sentence of two years in the Federal penitntiary and a fine of $10,000. He is 65 years ald and broken in health and spirit. His counsel is summing up declared repeatedly that a prison term meant nothing less than death.

Convicted on all six counts, Gerbracht can be sentenced to twelve years in prison with a maximum fine of $40,000. He is 63 years old.

All three defendants, who were under bond were paroled in the custody of counsel until 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning when the court will hear the usual motion in the cases of Heike and Gerbracht, and, barring some stay, will announce the time of sentence.

The trial which ended tonight was started on May 16th with six defendants included in the indictment. Besides Heike, Gerbracht and Bendernagel, there were three minor employes—Harry W. Walker, assistant dock superintendent and Jean M. Voelker, and James F. Halligan, checkers. The trial had not progressed far, however, when the testimony so incriminated these men that their counsel entered pleas of guilty. They have not yet been sentenced.

Bendernagel had been tried previously with Oliver Spitzer, the pardoned dock superintendent who testified at the trial just closed, but as was the case tonight, the jury disagreed. Spitzer got two years and four checkers were sentenced to one year each. They are still serving time on Blackwell's Island, but Spitzer, conscience-stricken, made complete confession and told a story that resulted in Heike's conviction.

The sixth count on which Heike was found guilty charges him with unlawfully and wilfully conspiring with Oliver Spitzer and others in making and effecting and aiding in effecting entries of raw dutiable sugar at less than their true weight, by means of false and fraudulent statements as to those weights prior to March 1st, 1907.

Judge Martin, who presided at the trial, finished his charge to the jury at 10:24 o'clock this morning and the jury then began its deliberations.

The verdict was announced at 10 minutes past ten, after the jurors had deliberated for 12 hours, minus fourteen minutes. It was Bendernagel's case that caused the long session. Over his fate more than twenty ballots were taken.

JEALOUSY AMONG CHAMPIONS.

Causes of Slump in Detroit's Playing Record.

Pittsburg, June 10.—The Pittsburg Leader tonight charges that the slump in the world's Champions is due to jealousy among the players. President Barney Dreyfuss' strenuous denies all the assertions.

The Leader charges that Hans Wagner and "Jack" Miller have openly declared war against "Jack" Flynn, the first baseman and that these two players have made strenuous efforts to oust him. It is further asserted in the publication that the slump of the world's champions is directly due to this factional fight and not to the weather, as has been attributed by loyal supporters of the Pittsburg team.

Because Capt. Fred Clarke selected Flynn in place of "Bud" Sharpe for first base, the published story states that Wagner and Miller took up the cudgel against Flynn.

President Barney Dreyfuss tonight issued a statement which says: "It goes against my grain to dignify such absurd fiction by denying it, but I will do so to save some of the club's friends from being misled. The entire story, from beginning to end, is an absolute lie. There is not a word of truth in it."

EDITORS ADJOURN A GREAT MEETING

Delightful Day on Steamer Wilmington Down the Cape Fear River.

GUESTS OF CAPT. JNO. W. HARPER

Baseball Game and Dance at Beautiful Lumina—Resolutions Adopted and Final Business Sessions Held—Other Notes.

With a dance, unsurpassed in the annals of the far-famed resort for its brilliancy and elaboration, given complimentary to the editors and their wives and daughters by the Tidewater Power Company, at Lumina, which is as widely known as the beach itself, the 38th annual convention of the North Carolina Press Association came to an end last night, and the only regret of Wilmington people is that the newspaper men, as a body, will not linger longer in their midst. A majority of the visitors are still at the beach and some have decided to spend Sunday there, but many left during the afternoon and evening for their respective homes.

Yesterday was one of the biggest as well as one of the most pleasant days of the convention. Business was given but little consideration and all began the day with a determination to enjoy themselves to the fullest extent, and they did. The events of the day began with a delightful trip down the Cape Fear river, with a brief stop at Southport; returning in the afternoon in time for the baseball game, closing with the enjoyable dance last night. While on the trip down the river the association held two sessions at which important resolutions were adopted and several matters of interest were discussed.

Notwithstanding the fact that a majority of the visitors were late in retiring Thursday evening they were up bright and early yesterday morning, all appearing as bright as the morning itself, and after taking breakfast at The Tarrymoore left the beach at 8:15 o'clock on special suburban cars, generously furnished by the Tidewater Company, for the city, where they embarked on the handsome steamer Wilmington for a trip down the historic Cape Fear river, as guests of Capt. J. W. Harper, the genial and popular owner of the steamer, who accompanied the party in person and was unrelenting in his efforts to provide for the comfort and pleasure of all on board. This was the first time many of the party had ever been on a steamer and it is needless to say that to them no other feature of the convention was anything like as enjoyable.

Many of the newspaper men had never had the pleasure of a trip down the Cape Fear river before and they were deeply interested in the possibilities of Wilmington and North Carolina upon the realization of the 30-foot channel project. They secured an abundance of data which will be used by them when they return home in advocacy of the deepening of the channel. This trip afforded the newspaper men just the opportunity they have been wanting for a long time to make a personal investigation of the possibilities of the river as a factor in the commerce of the State.

Arrangements for the boat trip were in the hands of a committee composed of Mr. Benj. Bell, chairman; Messrs W. B. Cooper, Z. W. Whitehead, R. P. McClammy and W. P. Mangum Turner, most of whom were aboard the steamer yesterday. They planned well and everything went off as smoothly as could be desired. Refreshments were provided in abundance for both ladies and gentlemen and luncheon was served aboard. The local manager of the Coco-Cola Bottling Works generously gave the committee, without solicitation, several barrels of coco-cola, which act was greatly appreciated.

Business Sessions.

Two business sessions were held aboard the boat on the journey down the river, being presided over by Mr.

"We are a jolly Sailor crew,
But reg'lar Buccaneers,
At taking games from Wilson,
And driving them to tears."
—Sailors' Chanty.

The Wilson "Champeens" dropped the fourth of seventeen games played this season to the Wilmington Sailors yesterday afternoon by the score of three to nothing, the visitors being clearly outclassed by the rejuvenated locals with Brooks on the mound. Hearne essayed the firing honors for the visitors but was outclassed by the local moundsman, who allowed but a single hit, while his team mates played a perfect game behind him.

The editors and members of their families, who were here for the State Press Convention, were the guests for the game of Manager J. Ed Smith and the Wilson management and the visitors were delighted with the exhibition of National sport and expressed themselves as deeply appreciative of the courtesy. Mr. Andrew Joyner, the well known Greensboro correspondent, was an interested spectator. He has traveled several of the Southern Leagues and enjoys a close acquaintance with the teams of the Carolina Association and he expresses the firm conviction that the East Carolina is as fast a League as any of them and even faster than several of them.

But to the game yesterday. The only regrettable incident was an accident to Miller in the third inning in sliding to second base, where he was badly cut on the leg and had to retire from the game after being attended on the field by Dr. T. M. Green. Miller is one of the most conscientious ball players on the circuit and the accident is none the less deplored by Wilmington than by the Wilson fans. However, Miller's absence from the game could not have affected the general result as Wilmington had put over the three winning runs in the opening sessions.

Jacobs, first up for Wilson, flied to third, Guerrant was out third to first and Miller whiffed. Wilmington started the fireworks right on the jump and Kluttz, first up, drove a scorcher by third base, stole second and went to third on error of centre; Dubbs bunted safely down third base line, stole second and Tydemann was safe on fielder's choice, Kluttz being thrown out at home. Mills was then out, pitcher to first, but Doak singled to left, scoring Dubbs and Tydemann. Cooper was out third to first.

In the second, D. McGeehan fanned, C. McGeehan was out second to first on good stop of Burke and Clapp was out from the infield. For Wilmington Burke, Gilmore and Brooks ethered in succession.

It was a whiff for Armstrong and Hearne in the third and Westlake was out third to first. Wilmington added another in its half of the third when after Kluttz was out third to first, Dubbs singled over second and Tydeman was safe on error of second, Dubbs scoring; Mills was safe at first on error of short, but Doak was out on fly to short.

In the fourth Jacobs flied to third, Guerrant was out second to first; Miller singled over second but was out trying second, being injured in the attempt; Clapp went to rightfield, Brady to centre. For Wilmington Burke fanned, Gilmore singled to centre; Brooks fanned, but Kluttz singled to right, Gilmore making a fast circuit to third, Kluttz then stole second and Gilmore was prevented from scoring on wild throw to second by dumb coaching; Dubbs was out, third to first.

The fifth was out from the infield for both McGeehans and Clapp, while for Wilmington Tydemann flew to first, Mills hit to left for two bases but Doak flew to centre and Cooper was out short to first.

Armstrong flew to second, Westlake to right and Hearne fanned in the sixth, while for Wilmington Burke was out third to first, Gilmore drew a pass, but Brooks hit to short, who executed a beautiful double, retiring the side.

Jacobs and Guerrant ethered in succession in the seventh and Brady was out to first unassisted. For Wilmington Dubbs hit to third and went to second on wild throw to first, while Tydemann fouled to first and Mills flew to second.

Both McGeehans and Clapp fanned in succession in the eighth and for Wilmington Carroll relieved Doak and hit the first ball over the plate for two bases to left, was sacrificed by Cooper, but was caught trying a squeeze home; Burke was out second to first.

Wilson only figured in the ninth. Armstrong flew to short, Westlake fanned and Hearne was out short to first.

"Jingles"

"Well, really!"

"You don't say so?"

"And this is Wilson, heh?"

Brooks—the great unsolved!

Guess that was navigating 'em some.

Waymack got his bumps for the first time.

This time it was Venerunt—Vidimus—Vicimus.

Goose eggs were the order all around the circuit.

Hearne fanned three in the 2nd; and Brooks encored in the 8th.

The Red Birds put it on the Railroaders, but it took two extra frames.

The visiting crowd were considerate enough to mother all the errors yesterday.

Only 27 men faced Brooks—and, by the way, they weren't facing him very long.

Three to Nill! Here's "Rosemary for remembrance." Put it in a cedar chest, Mr. Harris.

"It seems that only Fayetteville can put a stop to Wilson's flight." Fayetteville Observer." Mam?

The boys still kept up their batting. Kluttz rung up two, and, incidentally, purloined the turnaround twice.

Brooks is some hurler, and his anointed balls kept the Wilsonites busy churning or popping out.

What must the Wilson Bugs think of having it put to them like that—and with the much touted Mr. Hearne on the rubber.

Eleven visitors were morgued through the medium of Brooks' moistened goods. Five Sailors whiffed on Hearne's slants.

Gilmore and Miller were the two lonelys of the game. The first named was the only man to Weston; and the latter, to get a bingle in Wilson's name.

Glad to see Doak and Dubbs still swatting along. Mills got his too, and for an extra base. Old Ty is resting up awhile and letting the youngsters make a show in the junk.

"Comparisons are odious," but I don't care. The Tobacconists had no more chance of scoring, with Brooks on the ridge, than a native of Florida reaching the North Pole clad only in B. V. D's.

Kelly has been given his conge. Thus passes our highly heralded Kandy Kid. Let us hope the youngster will work some of that slowness and wildness out of his system, and come into his own.

Little Carroll pinched in the 8th and smote the initial one over smack on the proboscis for two moves. He made the tertiary station in safety but was choked with designs on the residential dish.

Everytime we think of how that game on Thursday was bobled over to Wilson, and the easy manner in which we should have taken same, but didn't, the lachrymal matter will just get on the ooze—that's all there is to it.

Get out to the park today, and go early. Rube Howard has got it in for those Tobacconists, and will likely do the mounding for the locals, and you can look for a good game. Besides we want to make some sort of a record for attendance.

Here's the way Mr. McDonald, of Raleigh, looks at Thursday. "Rube Howard, who beat Raleigh the other day, only allowed the Tobacconists two hits, but his team mates' generosity in handing Wilson the game with six errors, put a damp spell on Rube's brow." That's mighty wise junk.

Not wishing to be deemed canny in the cupola we rise to explain the remarks. "You're right! Since Mills joined the Sailors it's self-evident." in yesterday's Whimpers, should have followed the quoted article from the "Fayetteville Observer" referring to the best first baseman in the Eastern Carolina, which excerpt insinuated that their man was just about filling that important role. Snatching up the gauntlet, we riffled to insinuate just as insinuatingly that our Mills was top-notcher. Sabe?

Hudson has also been released. "Hendrik" is a good maskman, and a conscientious player, and is no slouch with the willow. The boy is unwell, however, and besides cannot handle his kickapoos on the paths with the acceleration that counts. Having two other backstops, and yesterday being time set aside for reducing team personnels to the limit prescribed by the league it was deemed advisable by the management to let him out. With him goes our best wishes and thanks for accomplishing the part he did in trying to turn victory our way when the odds were against us, and no one was hitting the ball with any regularity outside of himself and Tydemann. "Good bye, Hud—. Luck! and a speedy return to condition!"

WENT FOR ELEVEN INNINGS

Score One to Nothing for Raleigh at Rocky Mount—Lathrop Pitched Great Game for the Red Birds.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., June 10.—Inability to hit Lathrop connected with Walsh's ineffectiveness and the fielding behind him, caused today's game to go for eleven frames to be broken up by a two-base hit in center and Dessault's muff of a throw to plate, giving the Birds a victory, one to nothing.

The one big feature of the game was a one-handed stab by Stein in left field when he pulled down a line drive with one hand from Simmons' bat, cutting off a run. Walsh did not pitch his usual game and he was wild and yielded hits freely, however, the team's tightening up in pinches to keep men from circling the corners. Lathrop was effective throughout.

New York, June 10.—Chicago retained possession of first place by defeating the Giants today 6 to 5. The locals looked to have the game win until the eighth inning, the score then being 5 to 2 in their favor. After Archer had struck out Beaumont batting for Richie bunted safely. Zimmerman hitting for Evers fanned, but Scheckard was passed and the bases became filled when Merkle fumbled Schulte's grounded.

Chance singled to right on the first ball pitched him, and when Murray let the ball go the fence all the Chicago runners scored. The Cubs made four double plays.

Jas. H. Caine, editor of The Asheville Citizen, second vice president, and Secretary John B. Sherrill, of Concord, was at his post. Mr. H. B. Varner, editor of the Lexington Dispatch and also editor and publisher of The Southern Good Roads Magazine, the official organ of the North Carolina Good Roads Association, read the resolutions adopted by the good roads convention Thursday night, particular emphasis being given to the following paragraphs:

"That it is the sense of this meeting that the best use that can be made of the State convicts is in the construction of public roads, and the counties desiring same should have the first right to use them for the purpose; provided they pay to the State a stipulated amount per day for each convict, the State to bear all expenses of maintenance, care and guarding of the convicts, counties that do not maintain chain gangs shall have preference in leasing prisoners.

"It is further resolved that it is the sense of this meeting that the State should give to the counties composing the State assistance in the actual construction of their roads, and should appropriate out of the general treasury for this purpose at least $250,000 annually, the said amount to be apportioned amongst the counties; provided, the said counties raise twice the amount allotted by the State; and provided further, that such moneys as are apportioned by the State to the counties, and that raised by the county to meet the State allotment, shall be spent in the construction of public roads, whose location and plans and specifications for construction are approved by the State highway engineer."

The press association heartily endorsed the appropriation by the State of the money for good roads, and with an amendment, offered by Mr. W. C. Dowd, of the Charlotte News, the portion referring to convicts was adopted. In effect the amendment of Mr. Dowd was that the present convict system should not be interfered with, but all surplus prisoners at the State penitentiary should be hired to counties which have not adopted the convict system in the event they desire convicts.

It was decided to hold a mid-Winter meeting some time during the month of January at a central point in the State, the exact date and the place to be selected later by the excutive committee. This meeting will be strictly for discussion of matters of interest to newspaper men and there will be no social features.

Mr. C. R. Hudson, State agent of the demonstration work of the United States Department of Agriculture, spoke to the editors about the work in North Carolina, expressing himself as extremely gratified at the great progress being made and interest that is being taken by the farmers. He also thanked the newspaper men for their interest and encouragement. Resolutions were adopted commending the demonstration work and test farms as conducted under the direction of the government agent.

Memorials and Resolutions.

The committee on memorials and resolutions, composed of Messrs. Archibald Johnson, T. J. Lassiter and Maj. E. J. Hale, submitted the following which was unanimously adopted by the association:

"Since our last meeting an honored member of the body, and one who was held in the highest esteem has answered the summons that awaits us all. J. T. Thomas, for many years the editor of the 'Louisburg Times,' was a man of the rarest qualities of mind and heart. He was diligent in business and possessed the true newspaper instinct; but he was much more. His heart was warm and true. His personality was most attractive and he held the friendships that he formed. Few citizens of his county were as popular and much of his life was spent in serving his people in official capacity. He was loyal to the Press Association, which he always attended when not detained by reasons beyond his control. No man among us occupied a larger place in the esteem and confidence of the membership of this body. He left to his loved ones the priceless legacy of an untarnished name.

"John R. Webster was a fearless editor and performed invaluable service in his valiant fight for civic righteousness. He died in the harness with his face to the foe. He despised a mean and little thing. We would pause in our work to drop a tear upon his honored grave.

"W. A. Curtis, one of our veterans and a man held in the highest esteem by the members of this body, has laid down his armor. He was faithful to the trust committed to his hands, and was a familiar figure at our annual sessions. Among the blue mountains he loved so well, they laid him to rest last month, to await the morning of the Resurrection."

Resolutions.

"It is the sense of this body that the movement to erect a suitable monument to perpetuate the memory of Edgar William Nye, who lived and labored and died in North Carolina is worthy of our sympathy and practical help and we would hereby give the movement our hearty endorsement and approval.

"We desire to go on record as favoring New Orleans as the most suitable place for holding the proposed Panama Exposition, and we urge the newspapers of North Carolina to exert all their influence in this direction.

"The Stonewall Jackson Training School deserves and should have the sympathy and support of every newspaper in North Carolina, and we trust that the next Legislature will pursue a more liberal policy toward this long needed and valuable institution. The work is under admirable management and we are glad to mention the heroic sacrifice a newspaper man, Mr. J. P. Cook, of Concord, is making in its behalf.

"We would urge our brethren of the press to aid in every possible way the great work our State Board of Health is doing for the prevention and cure of disease. This board looks to the newspapers of the State for help and we trust they may not be disappointed. The board asks for space in our papers to instruct and inform the public along the lines of sanitation and the general care and protection of the public health; and we hope that so far as it is possible, the columns of our papers will be placed at the disposal of this agency of help and healing.

"We endorse and approve the suggestion of Mrs. Charles D. McIver, president of the Woman's Betterment Association, that a week be set apart for the discussion of the objects and purposes of the association in the columns of every paper connected with this Association; and we would urge upon the editors the importance of magnifying this great work in every way possible, and of supporting and encouraging these good women in this labor of love."

Thanks for Courtesies.

The following resolutions were also unanimously adopted:

"By a decidedly unanimous vote the North Carolina Press Association desires to put on record its appreciation of the whole-hearted welcome which has been extended to it during its all too brief stay in this noted centre of Southern hospitality. The entertainment which has been accorded the members of the Association has been ideal and to enter into a bill of particulars would be too great an undertaking. It is sufficient to say that the Association has never before been made to feel more at home. While this vote of thanks is general, the opportunity for voicing special appreciation of the kindness of Capt. John W. Harper in placing for a day his elegant steamer Wilmington at the service of the Association, the trip on the river having been one of the most enjoyable incidents of the meeting.

"We must all personally thank Mr.

A Storekeeper Says:
"A lady came into my store lately and said:
"'I have been using a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove all winter in my apartment. I want one now for my summer home. I think these oil stoves are wonderful. If only women knew what a comfort they are, they would all have one. I spoke about my stove to a lot of my friends, and they were astonished. They thought that there was smell and smoke from an oil stove, and that it heated a room just like any other stove. I told them of my experience, and one after another they got one, and now, not one of them would give hers up for five times its cost.'"
The lady who said this had thought an oil stove was all right for quickly heating milk for a baby, or boiling a kettle of water, or to make coffee quickly in the morning, but she never dreamed of using it for difficult or heavy cooking. Now—she knows.
Do you really appreciate what a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove means to you? No more coal to carry, no more coming to the dinner table so tired out that you can't eat. Just light a Perfection Stove and immediately the heat from an intense blue flame shoots up to the bottom of pot, kettle or oven. But the room isn't heated. There is no smoke, no smell, no outside heat, no drudgery in the kitchen where one of these stoves is used.

Cautionary Note: Be sure you get this stove—see that the name-plate reads "New Perfection."

Saturday, June 11th, 1910.

Representative Burton Harrison, of New York, is ready to make affidavit that the Taft smile came off at least one time.

Somebody has offered a recipe for keeping young. How about it if one should happen to be too old to begin to keep young?

The picture of the Princess Fushima, of Japan, has appeared in the newspapers. On account of our gallantry further comment is suppressed.

The trainers of Johnson, the negro pugilist, deny him watermelons, it is stated. If he finds the patch, however, some watermelons will be missing from the vines.

In one of his London speaches, Col. Roosevelt remarked that he "happened" not to know the details of the government of the Ptolemies. The only reason why is because nobody had handed down the information in shape that it could be swiped.

A critic of Col. Roosevelt says "he violated the proprieties in making such speaches as he delivered in England." Oh, well he knew that. He was certain that it would bring on more talk than if he were to observe amenities that would not be noticed.

A few days ago Speaker Cannon made Senator LaFollette keep quiet by threatening to have the insurgent ejected if he didn't come to order. Like the South, Uncle Joe was not whipped when it appeared that he was stripped of his powers. He was only overpowered.

President Roosevelt jumped on the "malefactors of great wealth", but President Taft has it in for the "socialists." Wise Taft! The Socialists have few friends and hardly ever will be able to "come back." Swat the weak and they can't hit back.

"Go to", with you silly Republican twaddle that North Carolina's credit was ill affected by any act of the Democratic State administration. The oversale of those 4 per cent. bonds amounting to $3,340,000 shows that some Republican editors are entitled to an encore for the bestowal of the horse laugh.

President Taft, ex-President Roosevelt and Col. Bryan are attracting more attention than any other three Americans. Most of the attention being paid to the gentleman now occupying the White House is more unenviable than that which the two Colonels are getting for their share of national publicity.

There is no lack of confidence in North Carolina's Democratic administration. The State's $3,340,000 of 4 per cent. 40 year bonds were largely oversold. Pretty good on a bear market, manipulated by John G. Carlisle, some unthinking Republican papers and sorry conditions bequeathed to us from Roosevelt's Republican administration in 1907.

Says the Norfolk Landmark: "O. Henry,' the famous writer of short stories, is dead. His name was Sidney Porter; and he was born in North Carolina, of course." His birth place is the main thing. It adds to a man's reputation to be born in North Carolina, for that establishes prima facie evidence of his genius and the fact is accepted without any further proof. Some men would be willing to almost bankrupt themselves to buy a North Carolina birthright if they were for sale. These Tar Heel birthrights are priceless. A man has to be born a North Carolinian. They cannot be made but when good material comes to the State it helps him to be the next best thing to a native.

POLITICAL BANKING.

The passage of the postal savings bank bill means that the Government is going into the banking business. If the Government can conduct a banking business in the interest of and to the advantage of the people, why cannot the Government run the railroads, operate all the industries and do the farming in the interest of and to the advantage of all the people? That is what the socialists want and contend for and the postal banking business is but a step in that direction. It will please all the socialists and if it proves a success and does not lose money for the Government like its postoffice business, the socialists will use it as an argument for additional socialistic undertakings on the part of the Government.

The postal savings bank bill which was adopted in the House of Representatives on Thursday by every Republican vote, regulars and insurgents, is an administration measure. The President thus gives us a taste of socialism and yet he raises the red flag and warns the Republic that socialism is the future serious problem with which the people of the United States have to contend. He practices what he preaches against, and any socialists in this country or Europe will approve the postal savings bank scheme and meanwhile marvel at the inconsistency of President Taft in attacking theories which he is putting into effect. The Government's banking business means that a part of the socialistic theory will be put on trial.

If the socialistic doctrine is good in one particular why is it not safe and the proper thing in all particulars? The honest socialist actually believes that it is not only good for the Government to conduct the savings bank business for the people, but that it would be equally to their interest to do all the banking business in behalf of the people and practically to do all other kinds of business, each individual getting his share of the benefit in the economy with which the public is supposed to do business and conduct the industries, while those who are energetic and are willing to do the most work as employes of the Government will get the greatest share of the benefits. In other words, the socialist who is the most efficient and works the hardest will get more out of socialism than the socialist who is inefficient and won't work.

On the passage of the postal savings bank bill in the House on Thursday it was adopted by the overwhelming majority of 195 to 101. The Democrats offered a substitute for the Republican bill but it was voted down by 196 against it to 113 in favor of the substitute, only one Republican voting for the Democratic substitute. That Republican, however, voted for the Republican bill on the final roll call, so that not a single Republican cast his vote against the Government's going into the banking business. As usual, the Democrats were split, 21 of them joining the Republicans in voting down the Democratic substitute, while on the final passage of the Republican bill 24 Democrats joined the Republicans in voting for it.

We are glad to note that not a single Democratic Congressman from North Carolina voted for the Republican bill and that only one Southern member, the Hon. D. Wyatt Aiken, of South Carolina, voted for it. The other 23 Democrats who voted with Aiken for the Republican bill were from Northern and Western States. It appears that the Democrats generally were not in favor of the Government's banking enterprise, the substitute which they offered representing only an effort to secure a more acceptable measure in view of the fact that the Republicans were bent on setting up the Government in the banking business.

The passage of the bill means that many thousands of employes will be added to the Government payroll and that there will be Federal jobs galore. It means also that politicians will be the bankers and that political job hunters will be the bank clerks and bank employes. We don't expect any amount of satisfaction or tremendous success from any business conducted by politicians, whether they are Republicans or Democrats. We have yet failed to see where politics and business would mix and turn out a dividend.

SQUARE DEAL BELONGS TO EVERYBODY.

It was not necessary for President Taft to "promise" the railroads a square deal before the Interstate Commerce Commission after the administration railroad bill shall have become a law. They have a right to a square deal and their able attorneys generally see that they get it in most instances. A square deal is the due of every individual and every corporation in this country and in order to secure every man and all interests in their rights we have constitutions, laws and courts. It would not be socialism but legal anarchy if the laws and courts did not protect both the people and the corporations in their rights. They would be going in the face of the constitution of the United States of America and of the constitutions of the States composing the American Republic.

IT WAS LOADED.

Taking the Hon. Tom Watson, of Georgia, as an example, the Hon. S. S. McNinch, of Charlotte, who recently took his departure from the Democratic party to become a Republican nominee for Congress, should "come back" before all the mill vote is heard from.

The appeal sent out from Washington by Congressman John M. Morehead urging textile manufacturers to support Mr. McNinch appears to have been loaded. Mr. Morehead sent his circulars broadcast over the Ninth Congressional District, using his Congressional frank in violation of law, and it seems that the reception for his literature has somewhat the appearance of a frost.

The cotton mill men in Congressman Webb's district are too intelligent to be caught in the Morehead trap and the Republican Congressman is hearing from some of them to his sorrow. Mr. Morehead received several replies at his Washington headquarters, but the Democratic Congressman from the Ninth has also been receiving copies of some of them. The writers who sent them to Mr. Morehead concluded that Mr. Webb also might be interested in them, so they also forwarded one to the man against whom Mr. McNinch is to run.

Mr. Thomas J. Pence, the Washington correspondent of the Raleigh News and Observer, seems to be on his job. The mill men's replies greatly interest him and he is wiring our Raleigh contemporary some warm extracts from some of the letters to Mr. Morehead. Mr. Pence states that the answers to the Morehead circulars "throw a flood of light on the Congressional situation in the cotton mill district in the State." The alert and chortling Tom Pence remarks furthermore that "a perusal of them will convince anyone that Mr. McNinch is going down to ignominious defeat if he counts on the textile vote to put him in Congress." He adds: "With the textile business practically paralyzed, this is not the time for Republican candidates for Congress to appeal to the cotton mill vote."

Read what a mill man sent to Mr. Morehead and make a mental note of the distress which it caused the McNinch booster. Here is the reply from Mr. A. H. Huss, secretary and treasurer of the Howell Manufacturing Company, at Cherryville, Gaston county:

"Cherryville, N. C., June 7, 1910.
"Hon. John M. Morehead, M. C.
"Washington, D. C.

"Dear Sir:—Your lengthy communication of the 30th ultimo received. In reply thereto I have this to say: That if our Ninth district people were assured that Mr. S. S. McNinch can bring about the coveted conditions promised by the Republicans two years ago, and outlined again in your letter, they would elect him most enthusiastically. We wouldn't mind much to promote him to President Taft's place, as seemingly the whole Republican business have failed to make good their flattering promises of two years ago, notwithstanding their majority in both Houses.

"Candidly, however, I cannot see how any Republican can hope for much encouragement with the past few years' experience in the textile business in this country. You will have to admit that they have fallen down badly, and have utterly failed to deliver the goods as promised. I cannot see how the Republicans can come again to our people, who are intelligent, and ask for their support.

"Assuring you that this is only the state of affairs as I see them.

"Yours very truly,
(Signed) "A. H. HUSS.
"Sec.-Treas. Howell Mfg. Co."

Mr. Morehead has done good campaign service for Congressman Webb. It has served to call forth a letter which terribly exposed the absurdity of the Republican attitude that Republicanism can help the mill men or any other class of North Carolinians. It also serves to attract the attention of the people of the State to the fact that the Republican government and policies are blamed by the mill men for the stagnation which has come to the textile industry.

In an article in the Star yesterday a mill man expressing his views to the Charlotte Observer declared that the condition of the mill interests could not be worse than they are now. The National Republican platform made a promise of prosperity but it could not and has not delivered the goods. The exposure of the pretentions of Mr. Morehead, Mr. McNinch and the Republican party is stupendous and it will not take the sensible men of the Ninth District very long to make up their minds to return to the House a Democratic Congressman who has filled the bill as an able and clean representative of his people.

The average Wilmington darkey has now become a watermillionaire.

Beware of the finger of scorn that Civic Righteousness is ready to point these days.

Love, self-sacrifice, are in woman's nature. United they are part and parcel of many women's lot. Their whole lives are loving and working and expiatory. They wish no glory. They only wish their men to hold and help. It is time to call out the Federal troops and make treason odious. Chancellor Day tells the trustees of Syracuse University that "but for the insane assaults upon the commerce of the country, upon railways and manufacture" he believes that "we would be able to report a couple of millions more of increase in our endowments." Little wonder the Chancellor thinks that "the present aspects of our country are not flattering" and that "no one can tell what insurgent cranks will be able to inject their wild-eyed socialistic theories into the business of the country by act of Congress." We see nothing for Mr. Taft to do but adjourn Congress sine die at the point of the bayonet and issue a proclamation amending section 1 of article I. of the Constitution of the United States to read as follows: "All legislative powers herein granted shall be vested in the New York Stock Exchange." When political insurrection is costing Syracuse University a cool two millions in endowments, no measure to preserve the sacred rights of property can be too drastic.—New York World.

If Attorney-General Wickersham had not previously denied that he had received any part of the fee paid by the Sugar Trust to Henry W. Taft in the suit brought by George H. Earle, receiver of the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining Company, the admission made through Representative McKinlay on the floor of the House that Mr. Wickersham did share in the fee as one of the law firm of which he and Henry W. Taft were members, would be of little importance. But it is extremely unfortunate that Mr. Wickersham at the start did not state facts as they were without equivocation. Coming on top of the discovery that he antedated the opinion he submitted to Mr. Taft in the Glavis-Ballinger matter, and that the circumstance of the false date was concealed and misrepresented until the truth was wrested from him unwillingly by a Congressional committee, Mr. Wickersham's word will no longer pass for as good as his bond. After a while he will learn that even in politics frankness is the best policy. As a Cabinet officer Mr. Wickersham has contracted a very bad habit.—New York World.

North Carolina has been very vehement and zealous in persecutions and denunciations of the Money Devil. A recent Governor of that State, who now has transferred his activities of hostility to the Rum Demon, attained some prominence by the vigor and desperation of his assaults on the railroads and was much applauded because of his heroism. Now it happens that North Carolina has need of the Money Devil. She has some bonds to sell to him and called to him loudly through the advertising columns of the financial pages of the newspapers. But the Money Devil failed to come. He stood off with his ears cocked and looked, but he didn't even wag his tail in response to whistling, commands and blandishments. So the State has thrown away the whip, tucked up the toga of her dignity inside the suspenders of her self-support, to show that she has no concealed weapons, and is going after the Money Devil with an alluring smile on her countenance and meat in her hand. The Governor has called the Legislature in extra session and has invited the bank presidents to meet him for consultation—the gank presidents who but a few months ago were the public enemies, the agents and allies of sordid wealth and the friends of the corporations. Some of us may learn after a while that while it is proper to keep the Money Devil in his place and resist his control, the amusement of kicking him continually for the fun of it and the edification of the populace may be carried so far as to be very expensive.—Roanoke Virginia Times.

Raeford, June 9.—Policeman W. H. Russell today shot and killed John Bootman, a negro man. Russell said he had to shoot in self-defense as Bootman had used some bad language and was advancing upon him with a hoe. Two shots were fired, both taking effect, one piercing the heart. Coroner McGoogan held an inquest and the jury gave a verdict which caused Russell to be lodged in jail.

MEETS IN TWIN CITY NEXT

North Carolina Fire Underwriters' Association Had Profitable and Enjoyable Meeting in Greensboro.

Col. Walker Taylor and Mr. James Owen Reilly, the well known local insurance men, have returned from Greensboro, where Wednesday and Thursday they attended the 13th annual meeting of the North Carolina Fire Underwriters' Association, which is spoken of as being one of the most profitable and enjoyable gatherings of insurance men ever held in North Carolina. Greensboro did herself proud in the entertainment of the visitors.

The closing session was held Thursday morning. A feature of the session was an address by Hon. James R. Young, of Raleigh, State Insurance Commissioner, who had as his subject, "Fire Insurance Conditions in Nortn Carolina; the State and Her Citizens; the Companies and Their Agents." At the conclusion of his address officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, W. B. Strachan, of Salisbury; first vice president, A. H. Galloway, of Winston-Salem; second vice president, C. W. Miller, of Greensboro; secretary and treasurer, John M. Harrell, of High Point. The association selected Winston-Salem as the next meeting place, the date to be named by the executive committee.

Wednesday afternoon the committee on the reports of the president and the secretary and treasurer made its report which was adopted. There was an informal discussion in course of which the agents were told how to solicit in order to get the insurance of the firm they were after, among those taking part in the discussion being Col. Walker Taylor, of Wilmington, and Mr. W. S. Wilkerson, of Rocky Mount.

One of the most enjoyable features of the gathering was the old-fashioned picnic at Guilford Battle Ground Wednesday afternoon, the party going out to the historic spot on a special train leaving Greensboro at 4:30 o'clock. There was a feast of good things to eat spread on the ground and after the feast and a general good time, Col. Walker Taylor, one of the leading men in the association, made an address in behalf of the visitors, thanking the Greensboro fire insurance companies and the Dixie Fire Insurance Company for the grand spread. Messrs. A. W. McAlister, A. L. Brooks and H. R. Bush made responses. The party returned to Greensboro at 7:30 o'clock and at 9:30 o'clock were guests at a delightful Dutch supper and smoker at the McAdoo Hotel. Mr. C. W. Miller was toastmaster, and among those who responded to toasts was Col. Taylor, of this city.

The meeting was very largely attended and great interest was shown in the several matters of importance that were considered by the association.

The committee appointed to report on the address of retiring president R. W. Murray recommended its adoption and this was done unanimously. The principal features of the president's address was the recommendation of the appointment of a strong legislative committee to be present during the next session of the General Assembly, the purpose being to look after the interests of the association. Col. Walker Taylor was appointed chairman of this committee and the remaining members are to be named later by the president.

WORK AT CASWELL BEGINS.

One Contract Landed by Southport Men—Cost Will be $33,000.

Work has begun on the extensive improvements at Fort Caswell, which consists of the erection of an ordnance shop, officers' quarters and the placing of plumbing and heating equipment in the various buildings. The post will be materially improved by the new buildings, which will be completed in the late Summer.

Messrs. Furpless & Newton, of Southport, were awarded the contract for the erection of the ordnance shop; Mr. J. H. Brinson, of Hampton, Va., contract for the officers' quarters, and Mr. C. T. Taylor, of Hampton, Va., was the successful bidder for the placing of the heating and plumbing equipment. The total cost of the buildings and improvements will be $33,000.

The Southport contractors began the erection of the ordnance shop several days ago. The other proposed improvements at the post, announced in The Star about a month ago, will also be made, but contracts have not been awarded by the Department. There were several low bidders for the electric work, and it has not been determined who was the successful bidder.

A series of meetings began Thursday night, June 9th, under a large tent at corner of Eighth and Wooster streets, conducted by W. A. Freeman, of Asheville, who is being heard by large crowds. The revival will continue for ten days.

STATE DRUGGISTS, MEETING

Thirty-First Annual Convention Held in Charlotte Was Largely Attended—Many Applicants for License.

The thirty-first annual session of the North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association, in session in Charlotte since Wednesday with Mr. G. Y. Watson, of Southport, president the past year, presiding, came to a close last evening. Reports from Charlote are to the effect that the meeting was largely attended by prominent druggists from various parts of the State.

The next meeting will be held in Morehead City. In his address the retiring president, Mr. Watson, endorsed a plan to rotate convention places, one year in the mountains, one in a central North Carolina town and one on the seacoast. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Max T. Payne, Greensboro; first vice president, G. A. McDonald, High Point; second vice president, J. P. Woodall, Charlotte; secretary, P. W. Vaughan, Durham; treasurer, G. E. Burwell, Charlotte. Mr. J. P. Stowe, of Charlotte, was elected to serve on the State Board of Pharmacy for five years to succeed C. B. Miller, of Goldsboro, whose term expired Thursday.

President Watson, in his annual address, spoke as follows regarding the whiskey business:

"The only lawful channel now through which whiskey may be purchased is upon the original prescription of a regularly licensed physician, which prescription is filled at the drug stores. I regret to say that in some places of the State the law has been freely violated. I want to say that the drug business has been the butt of ridicule too long on account of the liquor question. I have shown the people of my town that the drug business is as honorable as any and not allied with the liquor interests. Let the druggists of the State drop the sale of liquor and show that they mean it."

He also stated that pharmacists should be politicians, working for better legislation and the uplift of their business in all ways possible, but not in regard to the State Board of Pharmacy with which this association is on the friendliest of terms. When it comes to electing men for the State Board he did not think any of the pharmacists should play politics.

Thursday night the visitors were given a smoker at the Colonial Club, following a two hours' trolley ride over the city.

The State Board of Pharmacy was in session in Charlotte at the same time as the association. There were 80 applicants for license to practice pharmacy in the State, the number including about 60 young men, and quite a number of colored applicants, both men and women. Owing to the unusually large number of applicants the Board was later than usual in making announcement of the successful applicants.

Those announced yesterday were as follows, only 35 of the 79 having been successful:

M. W. Brooks, Asheville; B. C. Griffin, Concord; L. C. Ashcraft, Mount Airy; M. A. Nicholsan, Graham; E. G. Robertson, Raleigh; William L. Johnson, Greensboro; J. B. Polk, Charlotte; J. H. Townsend, Red Springs; Jesse Carter, Jr., Aberdeen; Joseph House, Scotland Neck; J. L. Wilkinson, Durham; R. K. Webb, Charlotte; L. C. McDonald, Durham; A. M. Mattocks, Newbern; G. C. Emerson, Winston-Salem; R. L. Hart, Henderson; G. A. Isley, Burlington; R. L. Rheinhardt, Forest City; A. T. Salling, Wilmington; C. H. Wilson, Greensboro; G. C. Propst, Concord; W. D. Bost, Matthews; William R. Nowell, Wendell; F. J. Hunnicutt, Raleigh; G. W. Waters, Goldsboro; H. R. Kyser, Rocky Mount; J. B. Perry, Macon; J. A. Hutchins, Chapel Hill; H. L. Gwyn, Mount Airy; W. R. White, Warrenton; L. M. Jarrett, Asheville; J. B. Hunter, Charlotte; the successful negroes are C. E. Shaw, Charlotte; T. J. Brown, Charlotte, and W. P. Coleman, Raleigh.

Mr. C. B. Miller, of Goldsboro, gave the examination on materia medica. Mr. I. W. Rose, of Rocky Mount, that on pharmacy, and Mr. M. W. Horne, of Fayetteville, that on chemistry. Each one graded the papers on his own subject.

QUESTION OF PUBLIC HEALTH.

Broken Sewer at Foot of Chesnut Street Giving Much Trouble.

Tenants of the offices and places of business in the vicinity of foot of Chesnut street are complaining loudly about a broken sewer that has been allowed to remain open for two weeks with no attention whatever. It is the same old difficulty outlined by Superintendent of Health Akerman some time ago—the inability to fix ownership so long as work on the same is required and there is cost attached. It is a matter of public health and either the Board of Aldermen or the Board of Health should take action at once. In an enlightened community such things should not be allowed to exist. At one time the Health Department of the city adopted the policy of closing he sewer entirely until the responsibility was fixed and it would seem to be the part of wisdom to adopt this measure in dealing with the present situation at foot of Chesnut street. Something should be done and done speedily, especially as warm weather has now approached and the danger is positive.

MATTERS IN SUPERIOR COURT

Two Divorces Granted Following Which There Was Argument in Important Cases—Motion Argued in Gregg Case.

When Superior Court reconvened yesterday morning two divorces were granted in short order, neither being contested, after which there was argument of counsel on motions in several important cases, these occupying the attention of the court until 6 o'clock in the afternoon. The term will adjourn today.

The divorce cases were entitled Mary Kerr against John W. Kerr, Jr., white, and Emma L. Jordan against W. T. Jordan, colored. Bellamy & Bellamy represented the plaintiffs in both cases.

Geo. B. Elliott, assistant general counsel, and Thos. W. Davis, of local counsel, for the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, lodged a motion yesterday morning for the removal to Federal court of the case entitled Mack L. Godwin, administrator against the Coast Line, and argument on this consumed all of the remainder of the morning session and a good portion of the afternoon session It will be recalled that Melvin A. Godwin, brother of the plaintiff, was killed by a shifting engine on the local yards of the Coast Line some months ago, and shortly thereafter suit for $25,000 damages was instituted in Superior court against the railroad. The motion of counsel for the defendant company was resisted by A. G. Ricaud, Esq., and ex-Judge E. K. Bryan, counsel for the plaintiff. Judge Cooke allowed the motion and ordered the case removed to Federal Court. Three other cases against the Coast Line were removed to Federal Court, the plaintiffs in the actions being Emma Boney, Kato J. Cummings, and Kato J. Cummings and wife.

Judge Cooke signed an order in the case of Chas. S. Riley & Co., against W. T. Sears & Co., ordering the receiver, Hon. John D. Bellamy, to pay the amount of the laborers' claims involved in the action. Herbert McClammy, Esq., counsel for Riley & Co., appealed to the Supreme Court. The petitioners were represented by ex-Judge E. K. Bryan and Kenan & Stacy.

Just before adjournment of court there was argument on a motion lodged by counsel for the city of Wilmington to set aside the verdict in the Gregg case, in which the jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff against the city of Wilmington for $7,000. A. G. Ricaud, Esq., counsel for Mr. James F. Woolvin, who was a co defendant in the action, but who was eliminated of responsibility by the jury, asked that his client be eliminated altogether from the case. Judge Cooke intimated that he would not eliminate Mr. Woolvin for there was some ground for contributory negligence, but was disposed to let the verdict stand as to the city of Wilmington. Mr. Ricaud then argued that if the verdict as to the issue regarding contributory negligence as to Mr. Woolvin was set aside the verdict on the issue as to the amount of damages should also be set aside. Judge Cooke suggested that counsel for the two defendants get together and agree upon what amount each would pay of the $7,000 which would make a second trial, which now seems inevitable, unnecessary. Counsel for the city stated that there was no hope of agreement unless the court would set aside the verdict as to the amount of damages. The court was not inclined to do this.

Judge Cooke took the matter under advisement and will give his decision this morning.

COLORED MAN DROWNED.

George Sloan Fell From Lighter at Wharf of Springer Coal Co.

George Sloan, colored, was drowned yesterday morning about 10 o'clock from the wharf of the Springer Coal Company at foot of Chesnut street, when he lost his balance and fell overboard from a lighter on which he was endeavoring to push out of the dock.

It is believed that Sloan was injured in falling, from the fact that he never arose to the surface of the water. The colored man was standing on the lighter and had a pole with which he was pushing against the wharf, when it slipped, throwing him into the water, between the wharf and the lighter. In going down the drowned man made an effort to catch hold of the wharf and left marks on the wood, which was scraped by his fingers. Several persons who were a short distance away stated that Sloan struck his head against the wharf and it is believed that he was rendered unconscious by the blow.

The body was found about an hour afterwards in exactly the place where he sank and by means of a hook and pole the body was fished out by Davie Brown, a colored man who worked on the wharf. It is believed if the hook and pole could have been secured soon enough his life would have been saved.

Shortly after he was brought to the surface the remains were viewed by Coroner Bell, who placed them in charge of an undertaker for burial. Sloan had been employed as a stevedore by Mr. T. J. Flynn and was a trustworthy and hard working colored man, who was held in high regard by the members of his race. He was a married man and lived on North Second street.

A Woman's Great Idea

is how to make herself attractive. But, without health, it is hard for her to be lovely in face, form or temper. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation and Kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. But Electric Bitters always prove a godsend to women who want health, beauty and friends. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion, good health. Try them. 50c. at Robert R Bellamy's.

BONDS OVERSUBSCRIBED.

Half a Million More Than Necessary Taken With Assistance of Banks.

Mr. C. N. Evans received a telegram yesterday from State Treasurer Lacy, stating that bids were opened for the North Carolina bonds at noon and that they amounted to $3,865,000, which means that they were overbid by half a million dollars.

There was much interest in local banking circles over the outcome of the opening of the bids and it is good to know that the Wilmington banks were right to the front with more than their proportion. The Murchison National Bank, of this city, alone subscribed for $75,000 of the issue and moreover, the Murchison advertises that North Carolina maturing bonds may be presented July 1st to that institution for payment or for exchange into new bonds. The Murchison is also prepared to sell new bonds to those wishing to invest.

CHILD RAN OVER BY WAGON.

Painful Accident on Castle Street Early Last Night.

A little child of Mr. William Rising was painfully, though not seriously, hurt early last evening when it was run down by a wagon belonging to and driven by Andrew Brown, colored, on Castle, between Fifth and Sixth streets. It seems that the child was playing in the street and that the accident was unavoidable. Brown immediately stopped his wagon and rendered every assistance possible. It is understood that the parents do not blame the driver of the wagon. A physician was summoned and gave the necessary medical attention. The child was bruised in several places, but not seriously injured.

Meeting of Old Friends.

For the first time in 45 years, Mr. E. D. Pearsall, of Rocky Point, and Mr. H. C. Dockery, of Rockingham, met Thursday night at the banquet at Tarrymoore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach. They were school mates at Bingham School at Mebane in their boyhood days, and though they have not resided a great distance from each other, 45 years elapsed between their last meeting in their youthful days and the reunion Thursday night. They were delighted to see each other again and passed the evening very pleasantly in recalling instances of long ago.

Will Stand Medical Board.

Mr. C. D. Bass, a brother-in-law of Mr. B. C. Moore, is here on a visit. He has just graduated at the University of Maryland, having stood sixth in a class of 61. Mr. Bass expects to stand the examination before the Dental Board that meets at Wrightsville in July. Mr. Moore's brother, Mr. W. Houston Moore, who graduated at Jefferson Mdical College, on June 6th, will arrive Saturday and will appear before the State Medical Board that meets here in June.

SENSATIONAL CASE.

Negro Brings Charge Against White Lady, Who Hit Him in Court.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Southport, N. C., June 10.—There was a sensational trial this morning at 9 o'clock before Mayor Price Furpless, of this city—a case of selling liquor against Mrs. M. A. Tonka, a prominent and handsome young woman of this place. The State's witness was a negro named McAllister, whose character was proved by Mr. A. T. Clark, of the Waccamaw Lumber Company. The negro swore he bought one quart of Hayner rye whiskey from Mrs. Tonka the afternoon before. Mrs. Tonka took the witness stand and denied the charge and while her attorney, Mr. William J. Bellamy, of Wilmington, was delivering his speech for Mrs. Tonka in which Mr. Bellamy vigorously and eloquently defended her, arguing that the court ought not to take the word of the negro man against a pure, white woman, such as his client, Mrs. Tonka suddenly reached over and struck the big negro violently with her fist, hurling him prostrate on the floor, bruising and reddening his eye.

The Mayor immediately taxed Mrs. Tonka with the cost, which she promptly paid. In the whiskey case she was bound over to the September term of court in the sum of $100 for which she gave a certified check. Her husband is at the U. S. Army post and there is said to be talk there of doing the negro violence. The State was represented at the trial by Messrs. Cranmer & Davis, city attorneys.

BLOODSHED IN MEXICO.

Thirty Soldiers Killed in Fierce Fight With Indian Rebels.

Mexico City, June 10.—Valladolid, the stronghold of the Indian insurrection in Yucatan, has been captured by Federal troops today, according to telegrams received tonight from Merida. The rebels were driven from the town to the mountains, hotly pursued. Many dead and wounded were abandoned in the flight and many prisoners were taken by the government forces, among them Nicolas Soza, ring leader of the insurgents, who was wounded.

In the fighting 30 of the National Guard were killed and a number wounded. The attack was led by Col. Lara, whose men carried with them two rapid fire guns.

After the skirmish of yesterday, when the Indians were dislodged from their trenches the government troops camped within gunshot of town and followed up their advantage at daybreak. The National Guard of Merida to the number of 1,200 opened the engagement before daybreak. In three hours they had taken the plaza of San Juan in the outskirts of Valladolid.

The troops were reinforced by 600 Federal soldiers under Col. Luque and the fighting was continued until the town was captured. Many of the rebels are said to have deserted during the night and escaped to the mountains. Those who remained made a stubborn resistence but weakened and fled before the fire of machine guns. War Department officials believe that the situation is well in hand.

Vera Cruz, June 10.—Passengers arriving today on a steamer which touched at Progreso, Yucatan, yesterday say that many influential persons were involved in the uprising at Valladolid. The avowed intention of the insurgents, it was stated, was to release friends who are said to be imprisoned for political offenses.

Before Jefefe Politico Regil was killed, his resignation had been demanded by the rebels. On his refusal to give up his post the rebels dismembered him. The same fate befell Judge Victor Ojeda, of the court of first instance and several others.

The rebels are alleged to have thrown bombs into the court house, destroying it, and to have installed as their chief captain Maximilian Bonilla, a leader of the uprising.

AGREED TO MONEY FOR TAFT.

Democrats Consent to Appropriation of $25,000.

Washington, June 10.—Democratic members of the House, who, on May 26th prevented the $25,000 appropriation for President Taft's traveling expenses for the fiscal year of 1911 being made available for use for the closing months of the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1910, will not oppose the appropriation as arranged by the Senate in the Sundry Civil Appropriation bil. The Democrats prevented the appropriation, in the form proposed in the House, basing their opposition on the ground that the appropriation was limited by law to $25,000 annually and that if made available in that shape an extra $25,000 might be appropriated for 1911.

Representative Macon, of Arkansas, who made the point of order against the appropriation in the House, said today regarding the Senate action: "The Senate has merely made the $25,000 appropriation apply for use during 1910 and 1911, and no additional sum can be appropriated for the purpose during these years. I do not oppose that. The President can spend the money when he pleases. What I objected to was making an appropriation greater than the law allows."

Mexican MUSTANG LINIMENT

An unfailing remedy for the ills of your Live-stock and especially valuable in cases of Caked Udder and Sore Teats in Cows.

Saves Loss in the Dairy.

LYON MANUFACTURING CO.,
BROOKLYN, N. Y.

GENTLEMEN:—It seems to me among your claims as to the efficacy of Mexican Mustang Liniment you hardly give prominence enough to its wonderful curative power on inflamed and caked udder in cows. I have used it for two years in my stable and since I began its use have not had a case which was not relieved by a few applications. A thorough bathing of the udder with hot water followed by gentle and persistent rubbing in of the "Mustang" will, I believe, cure any case, leaving the teats in good order—unless suppuration has already begun. If all others in the dairy business knew this it would save much worry and loss. Respectfully,

MRS. A. I. YOUNG,

The following account of the marriage of Mr. Isadore Bear, of Wilmington, and Miss Regina Zunder, of New Haven, Conn., which was celebrated Tuesday, is taken from a New Haven paper and will be read with much interest by many friends in this city:

"A very charming wedding occurred at Harmonie hall at high noon today when Miss Regina Zunder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Zunder, of 712 Orange street, became the wife of Mr. Isadore Bear, of Wilmington, N. C.

"Rev. Dr. Levy performed the ceremony. The bride wore a handsome gown of white chiffon over white satin hand embroidered with orange blossoms and lilies of the valley, trimmed with rose point lace, and cut en train. She wore a tulle veil fastened with orange blossoms worn by her mother at her wedding, and by other relatives, and carried a white Bible, with her monogram in gold, a gift, also a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and orange blossoms.

"Miss Zunder had only one attendant, Miss Goldie Stein, of Wilmington, who wore a pink crepe de meteor gown, hand embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of pink sweet peas and lilies of the valley.

"The bride was given in marriage by her father.

"Mr. Bear was attended by his brother, Mr. Fred Bear, and the ushers, wearing cutaway suits and boutonnieres of gardenias were Mr. Arthur Weil, Mr. Mainster Muhlfelder, Mr. Israel Kleiner and Francis Zunder, of this city; Mr. Bertram Marcus, of New York, and Mr. Samuel Chase of Waterbury.

"The ceremony was performed in the parlor of the club house in a bower formed by screens of hemlock and bankings of ferns and quantities of white peonies.

"The reception immediately followed and a wedding breakfast, served in the banquet hall which was artistically decorated. The bride's table, crescent in shape, was placed at one end of the hall and with the young couple sat the wedding attendants and other young friends. This table was handsomely decorated with white peonies, bride's roses and festoonings of white maline ribbon. Immediately in front of the bride's table was a large round table, hollow in the center, where an attractive centerpiece was formed by ferns, peonies and maline. At this table sat the relatives. Smaller guest tables were arranged about the hall and these were decorated with pink peonies and pink maline.

"The gowns worn were very handsome and among those noticed were: Mrs. Zunder, the bride's mother, lavender marquisette over lavender satin, embroidered in lavender seed pearls, and rose point lace trimming; Mrs. Marcus, of Wheeling, W. Va., apricot marquisette over apricot satin, embroidered in self color beads; Mrs. Albert Zunder, black marquisette over apricot satin; Miss Marcus, valenciennes lace over lavender satin; Miss Lena Marcus, white chiffon over white silk. These ladies are aunts of the bride.

"Miss Zunder presented to her maid of honor a set of gold bar pins and the gift to the best man was a gold watch and to the ushers sapphire and gold scarfpins.

"The bride's traveling costume was a blue diagonal silk, and hat to match, The gifts were very elaborate, mostly silver and also very beautiful china.

"Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. I. J. Sternberger, whose gown was of gray marquisette over crepe meteor hand embroidered; Miss Lucile Sternberger, Mr. I. J. Sternberger, Miss Nina Lowenstein, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Rosenthal, Mr. D. Frank Marcus, Mr. Chas. Shaefer, all of New York City; Mr. and Mrs. A. PRETTY BRIDAL SHOWER GIVEN AT CHADBOURN, N. C.

Chadbourn, N. C., June 8.—Let one's imagination soar to its height sand a fair idea may be gained of the loveliness of the scene viewed by those who were prsent last Wdnesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. T. Wooten to participate in the bridal shower given by Miss May De Wooten to Miss Eva Tate, Chadbourn's bride-elect. At 3 o'clock the guests began to arrive and in a very short time 40 persons—maids and matrons—were assembled to make merry the hour. Three rooms of this spacious home were most beautifully decorated, the color scheme of green and pink being carried out perfectly. The reception hall was a veritable forest of green and one felt on entering that surely Nature, unassisted by human aid, had reared this grove. There were massive palms, luxuriant ferns and large arches of ivy and cedar. Under one of these arches sat Miss Lois Wooten, who served a most delicious fruit punch to all guests before they were ushered to the parlor. Then as the portiers of this room were thrown aside, there met the eye a dazzlinz scene of beauty. Here too were to be seen palms, magnificent lilies, clusters of sweet peas with their variegated hues, but predominating above all was the ever present green and pink. From the centre of the room was suspended a large hoop representing a "hoop of fate." This was of dainty pink and peeping out here and there was a teat of green, adding a most graceful touch. Hanging from this hoop were nine dainty little pink and green satin slippers—the centre slipper being larger than the rest was borne by a large Cupid to the bride-elect and the other eight were for the bridesmaids. These slippers contained something—yes, a mysterious something that aroused the curiosity of all present till the close of the evening when the mystery was unfolded.

The entertainment scheme for the afternoon was a most novel one and was introduced in the following manner: Miss Wooten as hostess appeared in the central doorway explaining that all present should put their imaginations to play in the personality of a young bride who has just begun housekeeping—when unexpected visitors arrive for luncheon and she has only one half hour to prepare it. Partners were formed for this by each person's being allowed to draw from a tray slips of paper upon whica were written articles of food used as companions—for instance the one drawing the slip for Spring chicken would naturally cnose mushroom sauce. Each couple then drew from a tray five more slips of food and with these and the usual staple articles found in a pantry, they were to help the young bride prepare her emergency dinner. Muca merriment was created in forming the luncheon as only the articles drawn could be used and as so often as was the case duplicates appearing which made the situation more strenuous. At the close of the contest each couple read their menu—with it the other contestants acting as critics and anyone found using ingredients other than their slips allowed forfeited their chance for the prize. The successful couple winning the prize—which was a book of select recipes designed by the hostess, presented the same to the bride-to-be.

The crowning feature was the shower which took place in the dining room tastefully decorated with ivy, sweet peas and roses, with festooning of pink and greed towering above it all. In the centre of the room was constructed by means of flowers and evergreens a well from which the bride-elect drew in an ivy-covered bucket, the various gifts bestowed upon her—while a concealed choir sang to the tune of "The Old Oaken Bucket," a parody most skilfully composed for this occasion. This whole scene under the mellow lights of the many candles was indeed most fairy-like in its beauty. As each present was unwrapped there was found enclosed a poem, the original composition of each giver. Rare poetical talent was displayed as these poems were read aloud for the enjoyment of all.

After the most dainty refreshments were served—and even these were true to the color scheme of green and pink—the height of excitement and expectancy was experienced on the part of the eight bridesmaids as they drew from the "Hoop of Fate" their tiny satin slippers that contained their fortunes and a miniature bag of rice—This they used as they showered the departing bride-elect. Thus ended an afternoon pronounced a most delightful one by all present.

ITS ALWAYS BAD

The Best of Backs Are Bad When They Ache, and Wilmington People Know It.

A bad back is always bad.
Bad at night when bedtime comes,
Just as bad in the morning.
Ever try Doan's Kidney pills for it?
Know they cure backache—cure every kidney ill?
If you don't, some Wilmington people do.
Read a case of it:

Mrs. M. W. Moore, 510 Princess St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I cannot say too much in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills as I never used another remedy that gave such good results. I suffered from dull, nagging backaches which made it impossible for me to assume a comfortable position. I was also caused much annoyance by a difficulty with the kidney secretions. When I read about Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box from Robert R. Bellamy's drug store and began taking them. They soon cured me and I have had no kidney trouble since. I have told several of my friends about Doan's Kidney Pills and shall continue to recommend them whenever I have an opportunity."

GOOD DEMAND ON DECLINES

Cotton Market Was Nervous Following the Sharp Advances of the Past Few Days—Liverpool Was Good Seller.

New York, June 10.—The cotton market was nervous today and somewhat reactionary as a result of realizing for over the week-end following the sharp advances of the last few days. Good demand was encountered on declines, however, and the final tone was steady at a net loss of 2 to 10 points.

The market opened steady at a decline of 3 points to an advance of 3 points, the old crop being easier in response to somewhat disappointing cables, while the new crop reflected continued covering and talk of too much rain in parts of the South, particularly in the Memphis district. The old crop quickly rallied to about the closing prices of yesterday while the new crop sold up to a net gain of 5 to 7 points with October and December making new high ground for the movement, but at this advance offerings became heavier and the market soon reacted. Liverpool was a good seller here and while not a few private wires were received complaining of too much rain, generally speaking, local traders took a favorable view of crop conditions. Prices consequently eased off under realizing and local selling for a reaction, with July declining to 15.22 or 21 points under the closing figures of yesterday during the middle of the day. The new crop followed the decline slowly and at the low level there was a renewal of bull support on which the market rallied quite sharply with prices subsequently sustained by scattered covering and some fresh buying encouraged by bullish week-end figures and reports of a better spot business in the Southern markets. The close was within 2 to 3 points of last night's figures on the new crop months which at the low point of the day showed a net loss only 6 to 7 points.

Receipts of cotton at the ports today 4,830 bales against 3,485 last week and 6,001 last year; for the week 25,000 bales against 36,463 last week and 51,321 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 431 bales against 89 last year, and at Houston 372 bales against 3,303 last year. Spot closed quiet; middling uplands 15.40; middling gulf 15.65; sales 17,535 bales.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, June 10.—The cotton goods market held steady during the day but trading was light. Bidding at lower prices was noted on convertible and printcloths but mills are declining contracts that show a loss. Curtailmen of production is increasing rapidly in cotton mill centers. Cotton yarns are quiet. Wool shows an easing tendency in the local market.

REVIEW OF COTTON FOR WEEK

Market Has Advanced in Face of Weather Conditions—Crop Reported Late in Many Sections—Trade Reports.

New York, June 10.—Cotton has advanced in the face of weather conditions over most sections than have been practically ideal. Covering by large Wall Street shorts has been the great feature so far as the Summer months are concerned. The next crop months did not move materially until Thursday when there was a sharp advance. These options had evidently become oversold owing to the favorable weather and the many reports of steady progress of the plant.

Yet of late excessive rains have occurred in many parts of the belt while in Texas maximum temperatures have been reported of 100 to 104 degrees. These conditions have caused considerable covering and there has also been not a little new buying on the idea that quotations for the new crop months are too low when compared with prices ruling for the Summer months. The stock of certified cotton here has decreased at the rate of 5,000 to 10,000 bales daily and thus far this month have diminished over 54,000 bales. As leading bulls are reported to have sold the bulk of their holdings of spot cotton it is predicted that the stock will continue to dwindle as fast as freight room can be engaged.

The Liverpool spot market has been active with spot and call transactions of as high as 17,000 bales in a single day. Manchester is reported active. The spot demand in parts of the South has increased of late. Large sales of the actual cotton have been officially reported here in New York. According to some Liverpool people the sales of spot cotton there would be larger if desirable cotton was available. Increasing reports of the appearance of boll weevil have been received from Mississippi, Louisiana and Alabama. The crop is reported to be from 2 to 3 weeks late in many sections and the plant will be exposed to a greater degree than usual to weevil damage. A large crop is undoubtedly needed. On the other hand the weather has been in the main favorable. Crop reports are in many cases more cheerful. Trade reports from most sections of the country has been unfavorable. The action of the American Printing Company at Fall River in deciding to close down indefinitely has been followed by the announcement that the big Fall River Iron Works, the printcloth plant owned by M. C. D. Borden will shut down every other week for an indefinite term. At Charlotte, N. C., a movement has been started looking to a complete shut-down of the yarn mills there. Leading bulls have liquidated to some extent on the advance and there has been considerable selling attributed to James A. Patten. But the dominant factor has been active covering of shorts, large and small.

BUSINESS IMPROVEMENT.

Effect of Railroad Rate Question—Review of Trade.

New York, June 10.—R. G. Dunn & Company's Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say:

With a compromise effected on the question of railroad rates which, though depending in part on action by Congress on the railroad bill is regarded as satisfactory, and with crop prospects for both wheat and cotton decidedly good, the business outlook shows much improvement over last week.

Stocks of pig iron continue to accumulate, yet curtailment of production was on a much less extensive scale during May than in the preceding month. New business comes forward in slightly larger volume, and a better feeling exists as a result of the compromise regarding freight rates. Talked of cancellation of equipment orders have not materialized and the railroads continue to place some improvement contracts in certain lines.

Formal notice from the largest producers of cotton and woolen goods of an intention to curtail production very materially bespeaks the difficulties besetting textile lines as a consequence of the sub-normal demand and the pressure upon costs induced by the high and uncertain values on raw materials.

Manufacturers are purchasing in a limited way and there is some increased call for staple domestics while the miscellaneous export trade continues quiet but fairly steady. Values are generally steadier. Trade in footwear continues quiet.

THE DEPRESSION IN STOCKS

Volume of Dealings Expanded Over Those of Thursday on Morket Yesterday—Renewal of Operations—Market Conditions.

New York, June 10.—The languor of the demand for stocks which began already to be manifested yesterday, prompted a renewal of operations for the decline today on a moderate scale. The volume of the dealings expanded over those of yesterday, but only to a slight extent.

The rumors of the identity of the sellers indicated the suspicion rife in the speculation that a purpose to depress prices for profit furnished the leading motive for the selling. The depression was ascribed to dissatisfaction with the railroad rate situation and to the condition in the copper trade. The selling of United States Steel also was an influence on sentiment. The quarterly dividend on the stock which was all recovered yesterday was more than lost again today. St. Paul was less conspicuous under pressure today than on previous days this week.

The progress of the railroad bills through the conference committee of the two houses of Congress is watched with solicitude.

One of the specific factors of weakness was the unsupported condition of the Chicago and Alton stocks which gave rise to the supposition that the dividend on the common stock was to be suspended. Its fall to 30 was considered corroborative of the market conjecture. The decline in Toledo, St. Louis and Western as the owner of Chicago and Alton stock was a natural consequence.

Preliminary estimates on the week's currency movement indicated a continued inflow of cash to New York. Money continues easy in New York, but there is little demand from stock market sources. The movement towards recovery of the foreign exchange market finds some explanation in the small volume of May exports of agricultural products as reported by the bureau of statistics. The operations in the May cotton option were responsible for the small volume of cotton exports.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value $1,607,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales today 533,800 shares.

DULL DAY FOR COTTON.

Rallied When Spinners' Takings Were Posted—Cables Disappointing.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, June 10.—Cables were disappointing this morning and while the wet weather through the Mississippi Valley led to considerable strength at the opening it soon became apparent that the outstanding short interest in the Fall months had been very much reduced during the week and prices gradually eased off some ten points from the early level. The market became extremely dull on th decline, and when spinners' takings for the week were posted the market slowly rallied. The long interest here appears to be selling July slowly, replacing these sales by purchases of both August and October. While we believe that the Wall street short interest has been practically eliminated there still remains a considerable outstanding European short interest in August and September. With warm weather in prospect we consider the Fall months a sale on the scale up for a turn.

HUBBARD BROS. & C.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, June 10.—As a bogey the idea of a squeeze in the July wheat delivery here was put out of business today, for the time being at least. The fact that new crop Texas grain of high quality is within three cents of the Chicago market basis served to give the trade a rest as to any supposed stringency. The market eased off uniformly near the end and closed at a net decline of 3-4 to 1c. Corn finished 1-2 to 5-8c down and oats 1-4 to 3-8c. Final figures for provisions ranged 2 1-2 lower to 12 1-2 higher.

LIGHTHOUSE BILL ADOPTED

Conferees Reached Agreement—Appropriation of $1,358,550.

Washington, June 10.—Conferees on the omnibus lighthouse bill reached an agreement today, and their report was adopted by the Senate. The bill carries a total appropriation of $1,358,550. The bill also contains a substitute for independent measures to create a bureau of lighthouses in the department of commerce and labor. In the main, civilian inspectors will be employed by the new bureau.

For a number of years there has been a contest of the question as to whether the lighthouse administration should be conducted by civilians or by officers of the army and navy, as at present. The House has favored civilian employes, while the Senate favored the disignation of officers of the army and navy.

The conference bill, however, would permit the President to use army and navy officers to act in lieu of the appointment of civilian lighthouse inspectors for a period not exceeding three years.

Under the new bureau there would be appointed a commissioner of lighthouses at $5,000, a deputy commissioner at $4,000, a chief constructing engineer at $4,000, and a superintendent of naval construction at $3,000 as well as the necessary chief clerk and minor employes. There are to be 19 lighthouse districts and the inspectors will receive salaries of $2,400, except in the third district, where the salaries are fixed at $3,600.

The chief aids to navigation which will be constructed under the new law are one relief light vessel, $130,000; one light vessel for St. Johns river, Florida, $130,000; Range lights at Norfolk, Va $35,000.

HOUSE AGAINST AUTOS.

No "Joy Rides" for Speaker Cannon and Vice President Sherman.

Washington, June 10.—Without debate the House today voted to insist further upon its disagreement to the Senate amendments to the legislative, executive and judicial bills making appropriations for the expenses of automobiles for the Vice President and the Speaker of the House.

All other portions of the conference report were agreed to and the conferees will again endeavor to come to some understanding upon the provisions for automobiles.

When these Senate amendments were taken up Speaker Cannon left the chair and Representative Olmstead, of Pennsylvania, presided over the House. Taking a seat on the Republican side of the chamber, Mr. Cannon with a cigar poised between his lips in characteristic fashion, watched the proceedings.

By a vote of 41 to 63 the House refused to agree to the appropriation of $2,500 for the Vice President and when the amendment providing for a similar allowance for the Speaker was taken up, Mr. Cannon left the chamber and going into the lobby lighted his cigar.

By a vote of 48 to 71 the House then again refused to appropriate money for the Speaker's automobile, Representative Scott, of Kansas, chairman of the Agricultural Committee, voting with the insurgents and Democrats against the appropriation.

The report was then sent back to the conferees with instructions to insist that the Senate withdraw its amendment.

ATLANTA "LOAN SHARKS."

Forty-Five Indictments Against Money Lenders Yesterday.

Atlanta, Ga., June 10.—As a result of a campaign waged by newspapers and civic associations against "loan sharks", the Fulton county grand jury this afternoon returned 45 indictments against local money lenders charging usury. Further indictments are expected to be returned against similar establishments when the grand jury re-convenes next Tuesday.

"The stories told the grand jury reveal a condition in this town worse than smallpox", said one of the attorneys interested in the investigation. It was shown that the exactions of these "sharks" resulted in at least one suicide.

BLOW CURED HIM OF FITS.

Negro Youth Withdrew Charges Against Man Who Assaulted Him.

Petersburg, Va., June 10.—Declaring the blow on his head of a brick thrown by Percy Stokes, colored, by whom he was assaulted, had cured him of having fits, Willie Botts, a negro youth today before Justice Plummer in police court, withdrew his charges against Stokes. The assault occurred May 23rd during a fight in a street here and Botts was knocked unconscious. The physician who attended him said Botts skull was fractured and he removed a piece of the skull. Stokes did not get off in court, however, until he paid a $15 fine for throwing rocks in the streets, a violation of a city ordinance.

A. B. Skelding, general manager of the Tidewater Power Co., for his unstinted kindness in extending the courtesies of his excellent line and for his personal courtesy and attention to us. His personal kindness and the superb service of his fine road will always live in our memory.

"Again, we would go on record as deeply appreciative of the cordial hospitality that has been extended us."

The only incident of the trip down the river to mar the pleasure of any one was the sad misfortune which befell Mr. W. I. Underwood, editor of the Greensboro Patriot, formerly city editor of The Charlotte Chronicle, one of North Carolina's brightest newspaper men. Mr. Underwood had just purchased a brand new and rather expensive hat. The remainder of the story is obvious. The result was that a Wilmington merchant made the sale of a hat shortly after the arrival of the boat on the return trip.

Owing to the fact that some of the party desired to return in time for the baseball game and others in time to leave on the afternoon trains, the proposed visit and inspection of Fort Caswell had to be abandoned, much to the regret of the local committee. A stop of five minutes was made at the Southport alnding and then the steamer turned her bow towards Wilmington, arriving here shortly before 3 o'clock. Each and every one declared the river trip to have been one of the most enjoyable features of the gathering.

Members of the party boarded special suburban cars at Front and Princess streets and at 3:30 o'clock left for League Park, where they witnessed the baseball game as guests of the management of the Wilmington and Wilson teams. After the game they returned to the Tarrymoore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, for supper, and in the evening were entertained at Lumina.

The Attractive Dance.

This dance surpassed by far all others given at the popular resort in the opinion of many. At an affair of this kind there are great possibilities with Japanese decorations and the management of Lumina certainly made clever use of the possibilities. The entire pavilion was strung with Japanese lanterns of every size, color and shape. Every electric light in the building was covered with a lantern, thus giving a subdued lighting effect. From the ceiling, over the ball-room floor, were suspended numerous Japanese parasols to which were attached lanterns of different sizes. In the centre was a huge parasol measuring 20 feet across. Each port-hole was covered with a Japanese parasol. Many Japanese wind bells tinkled in the breeze, and the air was filled with burning incense. About 10 o'clock the grand march formed and souvenirs were given to the ladies. The souvenirs were pretty Japanese vases and bon-bon trays. Hundreds of townspeople were present and joined in the festivities of the evening. Delightful music was furnished by the Lumina Orchestra.

Mrs. Caldwell Grateful.

Secretary J. B. Sherrill yesterday afternoon received the following telegram:

"Charlotte, N. C., June 10th, 1910.

"Mr. J. B. Sherrill, Secty. of N. C. Press Assn., care Chas. N. Evans.

"Please express to convention and to Messrs. Evans Meares, Hale, Caine and others my deep appreciation of exquisite tribute to Mr. Caldwell. I thank you in his name.

"MRS. J. P. CALDWELL."

Attractive Souvenir Booklet.

Capt. Thos D. Meares, clerk of the Board of Audit and Finance, prepared a most attractive souvenir booklet of Wilmington for distribution among the members of the press association, and none of the newspaper men are returning to their homes without one or more copies. The booklet is attractively gotten up and in addition to the official programme of the convention it contains a mass of information relative to Wilmington and her various enterprises and many advantages, besides containing a number of photographs of buildings and scenes in and around the city. It is to be doubted if a more attractive souvenir booklet was ever gotten up in North Carolina for any particular convention. The members of the association prize the booklet very highly as a souvenir of what is conceded by all to have been the greatest convention in the history of the organization, and it will be a great advertisement for Wilmington.

Elected Honorary Members.

One of the features of the session on the boat yesterday was the introduction by Rev. Dr. P. R. Law, of Charlotte; editor of the Presbyterian Standard, of a resolution paying high tribute to Maj. Wm. H. Bernard, founder of the Wilmington Morning Star, and for more than 40 years its editor and owner, and Mr. J. P. Caldwell, until recently the able editor of the Charlotte Observer, and making them honorary members for life. Dr. Law spoke at some length on the great service of these two pioneer newspaper men have been to the State and Nation and voiced the sentiment of all when he stated that it was deeply regretted that they were not present at this meeting of the association. A number of others paid glowing tributes to both of the distinguished North Carolinians after which the resolutions introduced by Dr. Law were unanimously adopted.

B. L. DUKE TRIES TO MARRY AGAIN

party could be found.

Speculation as to what became of the party was followed by a search of the hotels, but Mr. Duke, Miss Roschelle or their friends had not been located at a late hour.

Miss Roschelle is the daughter of a Durham merchant.

Duke is estimated to be worth a million dollars. Early in life he married happily and by this marriage two daughters were born. They are married and have children. His first wife died. A second marriage ended in divorce and his divorced wife now lives in California.

Alice Webb, the Texas promoter, was his third wife and this alliance developed into a National sensation. She brought about Duke's incarceration in a private asylum on Long Island as insane and he was subsequently released by relatives. From her he afterward secured a divorce.

Miss Roschelle was discovered late tonight at the home of Mrs. Mary G. Horsley, a private tutor, under whom she has been studying. Mr. Duke called there shortly after 9 o'clock had a brief conversation with her and disappeared again. Miss Roschelle was highly indignant over the notoriety attending the attempted marriage, and announced her intention of returning immediately to her home in Durham. "I was going to marry today," she said, "but I don't know now whether I will or not."

Durham Relatives Excited.

Durham, N. C., June 10.—The announcement that Brodie L. Duke had applied for a marriage license to wed Miss Wylanta Roschelle in Washington today occasioned the greatest excitement among his relatives here. An automobile took several members of his family to Raleigh tonight through a down pour of rain in an effort to catch the night train to the National capital. The Duke family are reported to be strongly opposed to the proposed match and to be exerting every effort to prevent it.

FUGITIVE SHOOTS SELF.

Belgian Embezzler Tried to Take Own Life When Arrested.

New York, June 10.—Folcion Buiset, aged 23, a Belgian, shot himself through the head in the Hotel Brevoort here tonight a minute after he had been arrested at the request of the Belgium consul, who reported to the police that Buisset was a fugitive from his native land and was wanted there for the embezzlement of 300,000 francs, or about $60,000. He will die. Buisset's attempt to end his life was made on the main stairway, leading from the lobby of the hotel in plain sight of many guests. A semi-panic followed among the patrons of the hotel who saw the youth fall. He had shot himself in the temple with a small revolver.

Buisset is said to have been a clerk in a banking institution of Brussels. His arrest was asked several days ago by the Belgian representative here on the strength of a cablegram charging embezzlement. Traced to the Brevoort, Buisset was lured from his room by a call to the long distance telephone. But so quietly was the arrest made that it escaped the notice of the hotel patrons.

The unconscious man was hurried to a hospital where examination showed that his case was hopeless. A draft for $50,000 and a bank book showing a deposit of $46,000 made today in the Savoy Trust Company here, was recovered. There were also records of other financial transactions. In his pockets were $700 in cash. He also deposited $300 with the hotel clerk. Among his effects were several valuable pieces of jewelry.

BOYS SENT TO PRISON.

Five Convicted of Criminal Assault. Long Terms.

Paterson, N. J., June 10.—"This is the worst crime that has ever been committed in this city. It overshadows anything I ever heard of here and not even the Bosshieter case could compare with it. Nothing but your tender ages saves you boys from getting the full punishment," said Judge Scott today when he passed sentence upon the gang of six boys between 15 and 16 years old, who were convicted of attacking Julia Rimer, a young girl, in Passaic Falls. Jos. Murdock, Thomas Matthews, Alexander Yurner and Albert Riley each received a sentence of six years in the Caldwell penitentiary. John McGrady, another of the gang, was sentenced to five years in the same institution, while Louis Freire, the sixth boy, failed to put in an appearance in court and his bond of $1,000 was declared forfeited.

CONGRESS TO ADJOURN SOON.

Sixty-First Session Will End Within a Few Weeks.

Washington, June 10.—That Congress might adjourn within the next two weeks was the opinion of many members on both sides of the House today, following the report that the conferees on the railroad bill were diligently working towards a possible early agreement and the further information that the postal savings bank bill was not going to cause any lengthy disagreement between the two houses.

Predictions were made that adjournment would come by Saturday, June 25th. Others believed that it would be no later than July 1st, in any event.

KETCHEL KNOCKS OUT SMITH

Champion Wins Another Victory at National Sporting Club.

New York, June 10—Stanley Ketchel knocked out Jim Smith, of New York, midway in the fifth round of a scheduled ten round bout at the National Sporting Club tonight by a right swing to the jaw.

It was rough going all the way and both men were guilty of holding, although under the referees announcement they were allowed to fight with one hand free in the clinches. From beginning to end it was one continuous series of clinches with Ketchel ripping in upper cuts that jarred Smith to his toes, whenever he could tear loose an opening.

Smith had a shade at the end of the first, although he slipped to the floor heavily in avoiding an upper cut.

In the third Ketchel dug in heavily with vicious, heavy upper-cuts through Smith's guard and had him dazed at the bell.

Smith staggered Ketchell with two left hooks to the jaw in the fourth, but for the remainder of the round Ketchel outfought his man.

In the fifth Ketchel played heavily for the body. Smith was growing slower and missed many wild swings. His fault throughout the fight was poor judgment of distance and inaccuracy. Ketchel forced his man to the ropes. As they broke at the referee's command and took the center of the ring Ketchel forced his man to the ropes. Smith was trying to come to a clinch, but Ketchel met him with a right swing that sounded like cracking in the head of a barrel. Down went Smith and was still squirming on the floor when Ketchel vaulted over the ropes, as fresh as when he crawled under them. Ketchel was never in distress, and never worried. Smith made a game fight but was outclassed.

THE ROOSEVELTS SAIL.

Homeward Bound on Stamer From Southampton.

Southampton, June 10.—After an absence from home of nearly 15 months, 11 of which he has spent in the African jungle and the remainder of the time in making a tour through Northern Africa and various parts of Europe, Theodore Roosevelt sailed from Southampton today on board the steamship Kaiserin Auguste Victoria bound for New York.

Accompanying Col. Roosevelt were Mrs. Roosevelt, Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, Miss Ethel Roosevelt and Kermit Roosevelt.

Col. Roosevelt met the members of his family here as he had spent last night as the guest of Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary at the Brockenhurst Hotel, near New Forest, Hampshire. Col. Roosevelt and Sir Edward Grey tramped through the forest for hours yesterday and that the American ex-President enjoyed the trip through the ancient royal hunting grounds and the companionship of the British diplomatist is evidenced by the fact that he declared the day had been "the crowning experience of the whole three months" he had spent in Europe. The Kaiserin Auguste is due to land Col. Roosevelt and his party in New York Saturday morning, June 18th.

As passed by the House the bill carried appropriations aggregating $42,558,176 to which the Senate added $10,095,042 and as agreed to the total appropriation and authorizations amount to $51,947,718, the conferees having reduced the total amount added by the Senate by $705,500.

Washington, June 10.—Because of the pressure of business Secretary Nagel has been compelled to cancel his tentative engagement to address the Virginia Bankers' Association, which is to hold its banquet tomorrow night at Old Point Comfort.

Seattle, Washn., June 10.—A fire broke out tonight at First and Battery large wooden buildings. A strong wind from the sound carried fire brands for blocks. A general alarm called all fire companies to the scene.
